Amol graduated B.Arch from MANIT 2007- 2012 batch and continued his studies with M.Des. in Product Design at IDC IIT Bombay, 2012-2014 batch.

Currently, he is heading a strategizing design team to enhance the future of digital banking experience with one of the leading bank.

In his professional career he contributed with designs with Fortune 500, US based companies such as VERIZON and PROGRESS. During his association with Verizon in 2016 as UX designer, he implemented his ideas & concepts on 5G project.

He is recipient of the prestigious 'Virangana Durgavati Puraskar' awarded by Chief Minister Madhya Pradesh, Govt. of India, in 2007. As a design evangelist he believes in simplistic user centric design solutions . His designs for state of the art 'Accommodation system of air ventilated coach for Indian Railways' were showcased at Bombay exhibition Centre, Mumbai in 2014.

As a passionate educator he is involved in conducting design thinking workshops for students, to help them increase creativity and ideation process. Many professionals and managers from various industries also eagerly attend his workshops.

He is also running online course named as 'LearnUX' a User Experience design Course for beginners where the basics of UX design are being taught with hands on learning experience with series of live lectures & exercises.

In his free time he enjoys experimenting with inks, colours and brushes, exploring various forms of nature, for creating artworks & installations.

Rooted in Indian culture he practices yoga and calligraphy daily for peace of mind.
