Subject: Response to Starred Question No. 41 (Diary No. 1293) in Rajya Sabha on "Status of programs run by the Central Government for digital education in government schools"

Reference: Email from CDN Section, Ministry of Education dated 18 July 2025

Dear Sir/Madam,

Please find below the pointwise response from MANIT Bhopal against each part of the question:

(a) Whether all Government schools have been provided with internet and smart devices for digital education:

- MANIT Bhopal is not directly involved in the provisioning of internet connectivity or smart devices to government schools.
  - However, through Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) and rural outreach, the institute supports the enhancement of educational infrastructure in selected rural schools.

(b) Whether the Central Government has made any digital education plan, especially for rural areas:

While the planning and implementation rest with the Central Government, MANIT Bhopal contributes to rural education through:

- Adoption of 12 villages under UBA for education and infrastructure support.
  - Conducting workshops and awareness programs focused on digital literacy in rural communities.

(c) Whether all States are being given equal resources under the 'One Nation One Digital Platform' scheme:

- MANIT Bhopal is not involved in resource allocation under this scheme.

(d) Whether the teachers are being imparted regular training on the use of digital tools:

- MANIT Bhopal has conducted Short-Term Training Programs (STTPs) and Faculty Development Programs for higher education faculty
- Currently, MANIT Bhopal has not conducted any digital skilling programs specifically for government school teachers.
- The institute plans to initiate such targeted programs in collaboration with government agencies in the near future.
